“ One of my fondest memories of my Uncle Brown was probably over 10 years ago- the day I spent fishing for catfish behind his house in Sumiton. He was so surprised and pleased that I caught more fish than him! Then we ate the fish- prepared several ways at the Restaurant owned by his son Drennan's wife there in Dora- and we shared some white wine he had (snuck in)brought. He became the Patriarch of our family after his brother Donald (my grandfather died) and he always made it clear he was proud of me- and I will cherish his memory and that of Aunt Betty the rest of my life. Love, Great niece, Suzanne Goldsmith Serafin and husband, Dennis Serafin Surprise, AZ

“ I have many wonderful memories of my Uncle Brown! I would like to share the most touching and shows the awesome heart of my favorite uncle. When I was perhaps 7 we had fallen on some very hard times. We were extremely poor, my dad's company was on strike and he was working at a gas station all the hours he could. We were in the process of loosing our house and the bills were piling higher. My mom told us that Santa may not come that year.....On Christmas Eve.....with so much noise and laughter.....came Santa thru our front door!!! He had a bag with presents for each of us. I will never forget the look on my mom and dad's faces!!! They had no idea he was going to do something like that.....after he left we ran to the window.....and there was Santa with my Aunt Betty sitting in my Uncle Brown's blue chevy!!!! Uncle Brown's kindness and love for our family will never be forgotten.
