“ I graduated with Danny Ray in '69. In school he was quiet, humorous (I can remember his laugh), and quite a football player. Later on, Danny Ray came to CHRIST and served Him. His service to so many kids will be remembered in their hearts always. Rest now in that perfect body, my friend.

“Danny Ray was a one of a kind gentleman that I truly respected. I will never forget all the laughs, jokes and hard work he brought to the fire service. His dedication and love for community, friends and family never went unnoticed. Danny Ray was the kind of man to help anyone in need. I will forever be proud to have called Danny Ray a friend. My sincere condolences and prayers go out to Daniel and the rest of the family. Rest in peace, soldier.
