“My sister was beautiful inside and out. She had the biggest heart and was so kind, caring, loving and compassionate. She loved life and was a free spirit. She was so artistic and could draw anything. She was very talented at sewing at a young age, making her own clothes that she proudly wore to school when she was in high school and she also made outfits for me when I was a kid. She loved music, dancing and singing along to the radio. She was tiny in size, but a big momma bear when it came to her kids and grandkids. I have so many beautiful and wonderful memories of my sister. My favorite memory of my sister was when we were growing up, we watched American Band Stand and Soul Train. She would stand in front of the tv and learn all the dances that the couples were doing on the shows. I used to stay with her a lot when she was pregnant with her two kids, helping her take care of them. I remember her amazing meals that she cooked for us when I stayed with her. She and I were close and I lived her more than words. I will miss you my beautiful sister. Love you forever, your baby sis.
