

Emma Lee Scurlock Lott

February 15, 1925 - March 4, 2016

Emma Lee Scurlock Lott passed away peacefully March 4th, 2016 at home surrounded by family, flowers, and love. Emma Lee is survived by her two granddaughters, Kimberly Gabriel and Kathryn Cox, her brother Jimmy Scurlock and her great-grandsons Jackson and Jacob Gabriel. She was preceded in death by her husband, Cecil, daughter, Hilda, and siblings Mary and Louis. Mrs. Lott enjoyed a life full of love, hard work, and adventure with her late husband of 74 years. Married in 1940, they lived through good times and bad, all while keeping God first place. Emma was an avid watcher of Wheel of Fortune, loved a good bargain, and was the original farm-to-table chef. She lived wholesomely, cooked incredibly, and loved unconditionally. She will be dearly missed. We are comforted by her own words, "you can't keep a good girl down." Visitation will be held at New Horizon Funeral home in Dora, AL at 1:00 pm on Saturday, March 12th, followed by a graveside memorial service at 2:00 pm at adjoining McCormack Cemetery. New Horizon Memorial Funeral Home, Dora directing 205-648-2323.

Cemetery Details

McCormack Cemetery
McCormack Rd.
Dora, AL

Tribute Wall

JP

“Mrs. Lott worked with me for several years at Peggy Hale dress shop. She rode to work with me and always started our days with laughter. Always fun to be with. She was always in a hurry and stayed busy every minute of the day. She had a big heart and loved her family so much. She had a kind loving spirit and saw good in everyone. Rest in peace Emma Lee.

Joan Phillips - March 12, 2016 at 10:41 AM

LR

“I meet Mrs. Lott in 1961 and worked with her for a long time in Birmingham. She was a very sweet lady. Always kind, soft spoken, and with a smile on her face. She will be missed. You granddaughters will be in my prayers.

Linda Rouse - March 12, 2016 at 07:56 AM