“ Eric oh sweet Eric! I can't believe you're gone it doesn't feel real yet the day before you left us you and I hung out for hours n hours just running lil everyday errands. Returning a Redbox movie, stopping by cvs patiently waiting for me while I read the bottles of nearly every shampoo & conditioner in the store it seemed like but u never complained u just kept me company and didn't rush me or ever get frustrated at how slowly I shop 🥺 even our trip grocery shopping that day and every other time u'd help me pick the freshest strawberries and blueberries it was always so fun with you there just as happy as could be. U truly always kept a smile on my face & made me laugh. Life was better with u in it Eric! U were always so positive and upbeat & u really cared about those around u. Ur genuine and loving and compassionate and honestly there's no one like u out there ur one of a kind in the greatest way!!! Ur definitely one of the best people I've had the pleasure of knowing in my life

I'll never forget the day before u went to be with Jesus what great spirits u were in I'd describe it as giddy just to be alive enjoying our beautiful day doing such mundane tasks pumping the gas for me like the true gentleman u t!!

U made my day that day and countless others just bcuz u were so joyful it made our day so awesome!! I hadn't felt like running all those errands that I really needed to do that day I wanted u to say naw just stay home u can do these things another day but instead u said I'll go with u come on it won't take too long (but of course it did lol 😊 it was an all day event pretty much) bcuz I had to get lots of things for the kids back to school etc but all bcuz I didn't have to go alone all bcuz u went with me just bcuz I asked u to keep me company u Eric YOU changed my whole mindset & attitude that day & I went home afterwards with a big grin on my face thinking of u rapping for me all the way back home from Walmart and Target I'll truly never forget you singing me some Too $hort & listening to u tell me how you were third in the nation once for playing the saxophone.

I'm struggling to put things in past tense.

And To his dearest beautiful mother & brother & stepdad & family: I am so incredibly sorry for ur loss!!!
