“ I am sure I met him when I was younger. When I was working in Adamsville and remember meeting him in the late 90's. I knew right away he was my dads (Gary Cooper) cousin. They looked like brothers. He was always so nice to me. I know he is in Heaven with his wife and son and cutting up with my dad.

I am so sorry to hear this - Larry & Carolyn were great friends, good people. Oh the stories Carolyn would tell me from when they would go to Florida or any trip. She loved to Go Go Go. and you know Larry could never refuse her. I will also miss them with their surprise visits to The Graysville Library, especially Tax Time. They would always call wanting to know if I had my income forms in yet. My prayers are with all the family - With love, Debbie Alexander
