“ I shall never forget this wonderful man. When he and Nina were dating Nancy, Brenda and I would always manage to wiggle our way into going with them on many dates. They carried us to the Drive-in, to the Alabama Theatre to watch many movies and you name it they would take us and never ever complain. He was a man who truly loved living, loved his God and loved his family and friends and truly loved his fishing and helping others. We all loved you Leo Smith and you will truly be missed. Rest well till we meet again my dear friend

“ I never met Leo, but knew him through his daughter, Kristi. My fondest memory is of the peanut brittle that Leo would always make and send some to me via Kristi because I loved it so. I always said, every year, that I wanted him to let me know when he was going to be making it with his friends so that I could go up there and learn how to do it. Rest in peace Leo. Make some good peanut brittle for your friends in heaven!
