“ It's Saturday morning and today is Patsy's service. John and I send our love to Charles, Jason, Marian, Phyllis, Robin and other family members. Patsy was a cousin but most of all a dear friend. From childhood memories to our recent visit, she kept her sweet spirit, compassion and kindness. They are now carried in my heart and she will always be close by me. May the beauty of her life only grow stronger for all who are grieving and may God's great grace sustain you and keep you in the challenging days ahead.
