“ I was working with the Birmingham Police Department when I accepted Jesus Christ as my Savior. Brother Bob Fields was over the Fellowship of Christian Law Enforcement Officers and Associates, and because of him I was appointed as one of the police department chaplains. We participated in many law enforcement sponsored revivals throughout Birmingham. Bob was a master at one on one ministry. He led many to Christ through his years of ministry. Bob also taught defensive driving classes for the municipal courts. The ones who failed the course would receive Bob's personal tutoring, and of course he led them to Christ. Strange how God orchestrates those divine appointments. Bob had led a man to Christ that had failed the course. Several months had gone by and the man came to his office to see him. The man started the conversation by saying that Bob had kept his wife out of hell. The man explained that his salvation experience made him a different person. His wife noticed the difference in him and she began to inquire what had happened to him. He didn't give her an answer right away but because of her persistence he eventually told her about the teacher of the defensive course leading him to Christ. She accepted Christ just as Brother Bob had instructed him to do. She died two weeks later, saved and not lost. That was what Bob did best, working beside Jesus Christ his Savior. We love you Brother Bob. Thank you for your investment in our lives for we are richer people because of you.
