“ My condolences to the family. I pray the sure hope as found in the bible will bring comfort to your hearts. "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of Christ and come out." (John 5:28,29 Acts 24:15) Yes, we have the hope of seeing our loved ones again, and the life to be enjoyed when this takes place will be truly wonderful. (Revelation 21:3,4)

“ Bobby & Brandon

We were "Blessed" to have had Sharon in our life. Her spiritual gifts were many. She expressed herself so beautifully in the many floral arrangements that she lovingly dedicated herself to. We admired her goodness in loving and caring for all of the animals that came into her life.

Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, we pray that you can look back in your memory and find comfort for your tomorrow. Hold tight to memories for comfort, and remember that you can lean on your friends and family for strength. Those we love don't go away; they walk beside us every day. They may be unseen and unheard, but they are always near, for they are still loved and they are still missed, every day of every year.

We are sorry that we are unable to be with you during this time of sorrow. Our prayers and thoughts are with you and Brandon. Cherish the memories and know that she is with God.

Love,
