“ I had never met this gracious woman of God until at my nieces baby shower, Lindsay and Kevins. We were 2 of the 'older' crowd as she jokingly labeled us. We stood for what seemed an hour or so and shared moments that were funny, sad, joyful, and a couple were just side busting. We talked about being the same age, give or take a year or 2, and she laughed and told me she was past 70 and I could not believe her, She was beautiful through and through. Lisa you walked up to us and this was my 1st time meeting you, even though you have done our taxes many years and we have known Randy since childhood. You told us we looked like we were having the best time of all the attendees. I truly enjoyed that time with your precious mom. My prayers of peace for you and your family during these days of mourning. I know God will send the Comforter and your joy will be restored in His time. I know this because He helped me thru the death of my daddy.

“ *I haven't ever seen Ms Shirley without a smile on her face!! When I worked out at Curves, she would come in and joyfully make her way around the circuit..I think we should all try to find the joy in our "workout circuit" in life! May God bless you all with the joy of the Lord and the peace that passes understanding during these difficult times...We love you and will continue to lift you up in prayer!!
