“ I first met Tate at a young age as he is my sister Darlene's brother and through her he was also a brother to me. I remember those big brown eyes of his and how precious and handsome he was when I first saw him, and as he grew he was a handsome man who had his troubles and trials in life, and he will be greatly missed by all

“ *You will be missed by so many. You touched everybody's life you came in contact with. Tate, you could make anybody smile even when they didn't want to. I'll never forget your monkey face impression that would crack me up anytime you did it. I'm praying for your wife, (step) children, mother, sisters, brother, and all of your loved one blood or not. “ Tate Shaneyfelt is one of the purest souls that I have ever met. One of my favorite memories to share was when we got in trouble together before we deployed to Iraq in 05-06. I came to his unit at 17 years old. He took me right under his wing. Before we deployed, he learned that I had never driven a car before. He borrowed Pick's truck one day and took me to the motor pool. I had no idea what he had planned, until he got out and told me to get in the drivers seat. I was so stoked!!! He went through the basics as I drove around forwards and in reverse for a little while and practiced parking. After I did well, he let me drive through base for a little bit to get a true sense of driving. It was a wonderful, cherished experience...until a few friends saw us and reported to Pick! When we got back, Pick was furious that he let me drive...but it was well worth it...sorry Pick!!! Thanks Shaneyfelt for always singing and lighting up the atmosphere whenever you stepped into the room, for your advice, for letting me talk when I needed to, for inspiring me to sing. You will forever be in my heart until we meet again. Love, Shaina Brown
