“ I knew Mr. William from A & R Tire Pros. He was always the technician who balanced my tires with great precision. Although it took longer than most would like to wait, I never got bothered with the wait time at the tire shop. Instead, I appreciated knowing that Mr. William's diligence would be my reward: a reliable vehicle. In fact, I never questioned a job he did for me at the tire shop, knowing that there was great wisdom behind that gray beard of his. I admired Mr. William's quiet demeanor, professionalism, and courtesy of customers and employees. Also, his smile was mild yet genuine, making a lasting impression of the ever dependable and knowledgeable employees at A & R Tire Pros.

"He that hath knowledge spareth his words: and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit. Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise: and he that shutters his lips is esteemed a man of understanding." (Proverbs 17:27-28)

May we all try to live more reserved like Mr. William, leaving a legacy of peace in this fallen world.
