

Willodean Brasfield

July 17, 1922 - August 11, 2015

Mrs. Willodean “Mamaw” Brasfield passed away peacefully at her home, surrounded by her family on Tuesday August 11, 2015 at the age of 93. Mrs. Brasfield was born on July 17, 1922 in Gamble Mines, AL to Willard and Flora Elmore.

She married the late Harry Brasfield in 1938 and they enjoyed fifty seven wonderful years together. She retired after thirty years of service at West Jefferson Schools and enjoyed her remaining time with family and working in her flower gardens. She was also a long time member of West Jefferson Freewill Baptist Church.

Mrs. Brasfield was preceded in death by her parents, Willard and Flora Elmore; husband, Harry E. Brasfield; and three brothers, Hollis, C.W. and Gwin Elmore.

Mrs. Brasfield is survived by her four daughters, Shirley (Bill) Powell, Sue (Homer) Brown, Barbara (Arthur Lee) Taylor and Mary (Chris) Hyche; sister, Ann Elmore Jackson and brother, Glen Alden Elmore. She was “Mamaw” to eleven grandchildren; twenty five great grandchildren; thirty two great-great grandchildren; and many extended family members and friends.

Willodean “Mamaw” Brasfield was well known for her incredible cooking and beautiful flowers. She was devoted to her family and always supported, respected and loved them unconditionally. She was a woman of strong faith, believing in the power and strength of Jesus Christ’s love, and the peace that would await her on her arrival home.

Funeral services will be Friday August 14, 2015 at 2:00 pm in the New Horizon Memorial Chapel. Rev. Lee Taylor will officiate. Burial will follow at West Jefferson Freewill Cemetery. Visitation is Thursday from 5:30-8 pm at the funeral home.
